Crime No.161 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, the petitioners along with other accused, abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with aruval and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner the petitioner is innocents and he has not committed any offence as mentioned in the FIR. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner is in judicial custody from 09.07.2024 and hence, he may be granted bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage and the petitioner is having 4 previous cases. But, however, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the period of incarceration and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.
