2.The case of the prosecution is that after consuming liquor, there was wordy quarrel between the parties. Thereby, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with sickle and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage and the petitioner is having 1 previous case. But, however, he fairly conceded that the injured was discharged from the hospital.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
