demanded money from the defacto complainant for consuming liquor and abused him and his father in filthy language and snatched a sum of Rs.350/- from his father.

Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the co-accused (A1) was arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the investigation is in preliminary stage. But, however, he fairly conceded that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail and no previous case is pending against the petitioner.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the co-accused was released on bail and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Judicial Magistrate Court, Natham, on condition that the
