the basis of the complaint given by the sixth respondent V.C.Paneer Selvam. However, the official respondents would fairly admit that the petitioner has not been made a party to the proceedings. It is also stated that the patta has not been cancelled or transferred till date and the petitioner continues to be the joint patta holder.

3. Therefore, though the writ petition is not maintainable, in the light of the fact that the petitioner seeks to ventilate a private grievance through a writ petition, this Writ Petition is disposed of directing the official respondents to proceed with the enquiry only after issuing notice to the petitioner herein and pass orders after giving him an opportunity of hearing. No costs. consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
