2.The case of the prosecution is that in the drunken mood, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and that the petitioner herein has attacked the defacto complainant by hurling petrol booms and thereby, damaged three Vans. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and his name has been false implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 28.06.2024, hence, he may be granted bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and the petitioner herein is having 16 previous cases and hence, he strongly opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel on either and that the injured was discharged from the hospital and also considering the period of incarceration, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner on certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
