2.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner and the second respondent had been living together for a long time and eventhough the accused was a Group-A Officer in Railway, the accused did not keep up his promise and refused to marry the petitioner. He would submit that this is not a case which the Court should have granted anticipatory bail.

3.Cancellation of bail petition is not an appeal as against the original order of granting anticipatory bail and it can be cancelled on only specific grounds mentioned therein. Seriousness of the offence or otherwise of the justification for grant of anticipatory bail cannot be reconsidered in the petition for cancellation of anticipatory bail.

4.It is now represented by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor that the investigation is completed and the charge sheet is filed and is taken on file as PRC.No.56 of 2024 on the file of the Additional Manila Court, Trichy.

5.In view thereof, except to request the committal Court to commit the matter at the earliest and the trial Court to take up the trial expeditiously, finding no other
