respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(b), 118(1) & 351(3) of Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS), 2023, in Crime No.228 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 27.07.2024, the petitioners have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted him with knife and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocents and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the the investigation is still pending. However, he fairly submitted that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the facts that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest
