2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is running a Finance Company. On 21.06.2024, the petitioner and the other accused, trespassed into the Company and abused the defacto complainant and his son in filthy language and tried to attacked his son. When the same was prevented by him, he has sustained injuries. Further, they threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is innocent and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he prays for anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the injured was discharged from the hospital and no previous case is pending against the petitioner. However, the investigation in this case is not yet completed. Hence, he opposed to garnt anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Considering the overall facts and circumstances of the injured was discharged from the hospital and no bad antecedent is reported against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail with certain conditions.
