2. In a similar case, the Hon'ble Division Bench of this Court in W.A(MD)No.840 of 2022, dated 09.09.2024 by following the Full Bench decision in M.Sivappa Vs. The State of Tamil Nadu and four others [W.P.No.23823 of 2023 dated 26.02.2024] has held that the petitioners are entitled for regularization of the service in accordance with the applicable Government orders and to bring them under time line of pay at the earliest, if they are found otherwise eligible by relaxing necessary rules.

3. The relevant portion of the Hon'ble Division Bench order is extracted hereunder and the same is reads as follows:

"3. Recently, the question as to whether the Government would be entitled to make temporary appointments was considered by a Full Bench of this Court in M.Sivappa Vs. The State of Tamil Nadu and four others [W.P.No.23823 of 2023, dated 26.02.2024], to which, one of us (R.SUBRAMANIAN, J.) was a party. After considering the scope of G.O(Ms)No.74, dated 27.06.2013 and G.O(Ms)No.22, dated 28.02.2006, the Full Bench had held that if the appointment is made to any one of the 86 categories of posts enumerated in the Tamil Nadu Basic Service, immaterial of the fact that whether the appointment is part time or full time, the employees would be entitled to regularization. It is not in dispute that the post in which the writ petitioners are working is one of the posts found in the Tamil Nadu Basic Service and therefore, recruitment of temporary employees in such posts itself will be in violation of the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Karnataka Vs.Umadevi reported in (2006) 4 SCC 1. Since the writ petitioners have been appointed to full time posts which are governed by the Tamil Nadu Basic Service Rules, the authorities cannot resort to outsourcing of those posts with a view to ease out the writ petitioners. We therefore, find no merit in the appeal."

4. In view of the above facts and circumstances of the case and the ratio laid down by the Hon'ble Full Bench followed by the Division Bench of this Court and also in the light of the G.O(Ms)No.325, Health and Family Welfare (C1) Department, dated 11.09.2017, this matter shall also be considered by the first respondent.

5. This writ petition stands disposed of with the above observations. There shall be no order as to costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition stands closed.
