2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the defacto complainant is a practicing Advocate in Paramakudi Court, in which, two cases are pending against the petitioners and one case is pending against the second respondent, in which, the 1st petitioner is the defacto complainant. Further he would submit that it would suffice, if this Court issues direction to the concerned trial Court to concluded the trial in all the cases (i.e) C.C.Nos.436, 538 and 162 of 2019 simultaneously within a time that may be fixed by this Court and fair opportunity may be given to the petitioners to disprove the prosecution case.

3. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and also considering the fact that it is a case and counter case and in two cases, the petitioners are the accused and in another case (C.C.No.162 of 2019), which is pending before the concerned Court, the first petitioner is the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to issue a direction to the learned Judicial Magistrate, Paramakudi, to conduct the trial in C.C.Nos. 436, 538 and 162 of 2019 simultaneously and conclude the same within a
