ORDER

The petitioner has filed this writ petition challenging the order passed by the first respondent refusing to issue the gun license to the petitioner.

2.Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Government Pleader for the respondents. By consent of both parties, this writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the admission stage itself.

3.The case of the petitioner is that as his great grandfather, grandfather and father had gun license during their life time, he applied for a gun licence to safeguard their gun. The first respondent rejected the said application based on the objection raised by the Commissioner of Police that there is no threat of theft and danger to the petitioner's life. Challenging the said order of rejection, the petitioner had filed an appeal before the first respondent, who by an order dated 03.06.2024 had remanded the matter once again to the second respondent to pass an order after obtaining a fresh report from the concerned police. The said order is under challenge in this writ petition.

4. In normal circumstances, this Court would have kept the writ petition pending till the respondents file counter-affidavit. However, the written instructions dated 13.08.2024 submitted by the second respondent to the learned Additional Government Pleader itself indicates the clear mind of the second respondent to hold that the petitioner is not entitled for gun license. In such view of the matter, the appellate Authority without making any observations on the merits of the claim made by the petitioner, just remanding the application of the petitioner once again to the second respondent by the appellate Authority does not serve any purpose. Hence, on this ground, this Court is inclined to set aside the order passed by the first respondent.

5. Accordingly, this writ petition is allowed and the order passed by the first respondent dated 03.06.2024 in Na.Ka.No.VaNe 5(1)/3049/2023 in remanding matter to the second respondent is set aside. The first respondent is directed to pass a detailed order on the application of the petitioner within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
