BNS against the petitioner and one Parimala and Crime No.250 of 2024 for the offences under Sections 329(3), 296(b) and 351(3) BNS against the petitioner and that investigation is pending.

3. It is not in dispute that there existed temple festival dispute between the petitioner and the private respondents.

4. Since case and case in counter are pending, it is for the second respondent to find out the aggressor and at this stage, the question of seeking police protection does not arise at all. Hence, the Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
