2.The contention of the petitioner is that he as the first accused along with co-accused facing the trial in Spl.S.C.No.144 of 2022, on the file of the learned III Additional District and Sessions Judge (PCR), Madurai, for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 120(b), 148, 149, 302 of IPC and Section 3(1)(r), 3(1)(s), 3(2)(v) of Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. Though the final report was taken cognizance by the trial Court. Before that the appellant was arrested and remanded to judicial custody on 19.09.2022. Seeking bail, he moved the trial Court twice. Crl.A.(MD)No.688 of 2023

Crl.M.P.No.2203 of 2023. The same was also dismissed. Against which, this appeal has been filed.

3.Pending appeal, since the learned Additional Public Prosecutor strongly objected the grant of bail to the petitioner, direction was issued to the trial Court to complete the trial within a stipulated time. Thereafter, it was extended as requested by the trial Judge. Now, again the trial Court requests further time to complete the trial process. Hence, the matter is posted today under the caption for extension of time.

4.Today when the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the appellant as well as the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the trial process before the trial Court has been completed and the matter ended in conviction. In view of the above said submissions, nothing survives for further consideration in this appeal.

5.Recording the submissions made by the counsel on either side, this appeal stands closed.
