tapping of water and hence, the petitioner preferred a complaint, however, no action has been initiated.

3.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the third and fourth respondents would submit that though the fifth respondent had issued summons, the petitioner has not turned up, that without attending enquiry, the petitioner filed the present petition by levelling serious allegations as against the fifth respondent.

5.Considering the above, the fifth respondent is directed to issue written summons to the petitioner as well as the private respondent, conduct enquiry and take a decision, within a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Accordingly, this writ petition stands disposed of. No costs.
