* 494 I.P.C and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Cr.No. 250 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute between the parties, the petitioners are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and criminally intimidated her also assaulted her and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel for the intervenor would oppose the anticipatory bail application by submitting, apart from the present occurrence, when there are two school going children, the accused also committed bigamy.

4.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and that there are no bad antecedents against the petitioners, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial
