2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of the deceased. The four unknown persons are said to have attacked the deceased with sword and murdered him. Hence, the complaint.

3. Heard both sides.

4. Considering the nature of the allegations against the petitioners that they engaged the other hirelings and committed the murder and considering the fact that there are materials such as CDR particulars and bank transactions as against these petitioners and also considering the facts that the petitioners are having previous cases and that the third petitioner has also withdrawn the money from her bank account proximity with the incident and that the investigation is yet to be completed, this Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioners on bail.

5. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
