2. The learned Government Advocate on instructions would submit that as per the order of the civil Court, the sixth respondent has been evicted from the premises owned by the petitioner and handed over the vacant possession to the petitioner in respect of subject premises. Insofar as the arrears of rent is concerned, the petitioner is at liberty to approach the civil Court as against the sixth respondent.

3. Since it is a dispute between the parties, it cannot be decided in the Writ Petition. Hence, the writ petition stands disposed of. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
