Cr.No.176 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the A1 received an advance amount for the properties and handed over the original sale deed document in Doc.No.1327/2010 to the defacto complainant and thereafter, A1 had given a false complaint as if the above said document was lost and also gave Non Traceable Certificate and thereafter, A1 executed a lease agreement in favour of the petitioner herein and thereby, cheated the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Considering the nature of the allegations that after promising to sell the property to the defacto complainant and after receiving the entire sale consideration and handing over the original documents, A1 by obtaining a false certificate as if the originals were missing, entered into a lease agreement with the present petitioner, I am inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Virudhunagar, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a
