operative Societies Act 1983 and Rule 114 of the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Rules 1988, as per the directions of this first respondent in banking business.

2. It is submitted that the respondent Society had gone into liquidation. However, subsequently it stands revived. It is submitted that the petitioner may be granted liberty to file a fresh representation taking into account the subsequent event, viz., revival of the respondent Society.

3. The learned Government Advocate for the respondent would submit that if any such representation is made, the same would be considered and orders shall be passed in accordance with law.

4. Recording the same, the writ petition stands disposed of and the petitioner is permitted to submit a fresh representation before appropriate authority within a period of two (2) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If any such representation is made within two weeks, appropriate authority shall consider and pass orders, after affording the petitioner a reasonable opportunity of hearing within a period of four weeks thereafter.
