were working as Assistant Executive Engineers at the relevant time and had also issued charge memos against them on 13.11.2023.

3. Ms.M.Aasha, learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) had filed a status report through the impleaded third respondent indicating that pursuant to the complaint that had been received by them, an FIR had also been registered in Crime No.282/2023 at Austinpatti Police Station and was transferred to the District Crime Branch, Madurai by order of the Superintendent of Police, Madurai, dated 01.02.2024 and after examining the witnesses, an FIR had also been registered under the very same crime number, in which the petitioner had been named as the first accused.

4. In view of the initiation of disciplinary proceedings against the two named officers and also the status report filed by the third respondent indicating that criminal cases are under active investigation, I do not find any reason to issue any further direction to the first respondent.
