This Criminal Original Petition has been filed, invoking Section 528 BNSS seeking orders to call for the records pertaining to the First Information Report in Crime No.165 of 2023 on the file of the first respondent police and quash the same as illegal against the petitioners.

2.The case of the prosecution is that there existed a pathway dispute between the parties, due to which, the accused persons abused the second respondent in filthy language, threatened him with dire consequences and also assaulted him and hence, the second respondent lodged a complaint.

3.When the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the second respondent has lodged a complaint before the first respondent and on that basis, FIR came to be registered in Crime No.165 of 2023 dated 05.04.2023 for the offences under Sections 147, 341, 294(b), 323 and 506(i) IPC against the petitioners.

5.A Joint Memo of Compromise has been filed before this Court which have been signed by the petitioners and the second respondent and also by their respective counsel. The petitioners and the second respondent were also present in person before this Court and they were identified by Mr.M.Ramachandran, Special Sub Inspector, Vaiympatty Police Station as well as by the learned counsels appearing for the parties. This Court also enquired both the parties and was satisfied that the parties have come to an amicable settlement between themselves.

6.In the instant case, the dispute is of civil in nature and now the parties had compromised. Where the parties have compromised the matter, the High Court has power to quash the complaint for the offences under Sections 147, 294(b) & 323 IPC and Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act.
