The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the alleged offence under Sections 420, 294(b), 506(i) IPC, in Crime No.468 of 2023, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the the petitioners conducted a chit and received huge money from the various persons and thereafter cheated them by not repaying the same. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Further, the petitioners are the husband and wife and they have no role in the said transaction. Further, the first petitioner fell in sick in the month of August 2021 got affected with stroke. Some of the accused persons received the chit amount. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the total amount involved in this matter is Rs.12,50,000/- and the investigation is pending. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioners and other accused persons received huge amount from 20
