3.When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondents 3 and 4 submitted that in the criminal case registered against the petitioner, final report has been filed but it is yet to be taken on file.

4.Even though final report has been filed, since it is yet to be taken on file, one has to proceed on the premise that there is no proceeding pending before any criminal Court against the petitioner within the meaning of the statutory provision.

The petitioner shall give an undertaking that the prosecution initiated against him will not be stalled on account of his absence from India. He should undertake that summons can be served on him through E-mail/WhatsApp. If necessary, the petitioner will have to execute a special vakalat in future so that he can be represented by his counsel in the proceedings in terms of Section 205 of Cr.P.C.

6.Upon the passport authority being satisfied that such an undertaking affidavit has been filed before the jurisdictional police, the jurisdictional Regional Passport Officer shall process the petition-mentioned application and issue passport subject to fulfilment of the other usual formalities.
