2. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is under prolonged incarceration, for more than one year in this case. The case is still pending for trial. Even though the prosecution is merely alleging that the petitioner has got a number of previous cases, he would produce the orders of acquittal in all those cases and submit that this is a fit case to enlarge the petitioner on bail.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side.

4. After considering the arguments of the learned counsel for the petitioner and the Additional Public Prosecutor, it can be seen that, at present, apart from the present case, the petitioner is in custody in two other cases. I could see that the case in crime No.252 of 2007, is still pending as PRC.No.1 of 2008 for more than 17 years and the petitioner was now only arrested in that case on 18/07/2024 on P.T.warrant and the case is pending for committal. The petitioner is also formally arrested on 10/05/2023, in Aralvmozhi Police Station crime No.482 of 2005 on 10/5/2023, which is now pending as S.C.No.66 of 2004. If the cases are long pending for the appearance of the petitioner and considering the fact that in the present case, the trial is about to be over, I am of the view that this is not a fit case for grant of bail at this stage.

5. Accordingly, this Petition stands dismissed.
