2.Award was passed in Lok Adalat in S.T.C.No.471 of 2016. In the Lok Adalath, the revision petitioner agreed to pay the amount on or before 09.10.2016. If any failure is noticed then that it will carry 6% interest. After that the respondent did not pay the money. Hence, E.P.No. 2 of 2022 has been filed to execute the decree before the trial Court. Pending the above said process, again agreement was reached between the parties to pay the agreed amount in three installments. First installment of Rs.6,00,000/- was paid on 06.07.2023. The second installment of Rs.4,00,000/- must be paid on or before 31.12.2023 and the third installment of Rs.4,00,000/- must be paid on or before 30.06.2024. Out of the said installment, only first installment was paid. The remaining installment amount is not paid. Even now the petitioner is not ready to comply the said undertaking, reached between the parties.

3.I find no reason to entertain this petition. The executing Court may proceed the execution process.

4.With the above said observation, this civil revision petition
