to the first respondent for conducting survey in the said property and he had also paid necessary fee. Since no further action on the side of the first respondent, the petitioner again on 31.08.2024, has made an application to the first respondent. Despite the same has been received by the official respondent, no action has been taken. Hence, the petitioner has approached this Court.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side.

4. Considering the request of the petitioner and also the fact that the petitioner sent his representation as early as on 17.02.2024 , a Mandamus is issued to the respondents to conduct survey and mark the boundaries in the petition mentioned property. The petitioner shall submit all the relevant records to show his title to the property and the respondents shall, after issuing notice to the adjacent land owners and interested parties, hold an enquiry and thereafter, proceed to pass orders either surveying and demarcating the property or rejecting the request. In the case of a rejection, a speaking order shall be passed. The aforesaid
