petitioner herein has attacked the defacto complainant and also abused him in filthy language. Hence, the complaint.

3. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate appearing for the respondent Police and perused the materials available on record.

4. Even though the allegations are serious in nature that the defacto complainant was cut in the head only considering the fact that he was discharged from the hospital after four days and also considering the fact that the petitioner is aged about 27 years and he does not have any previous antecedents, I am inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Vadipatti, Madurai District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

(e)on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;

(f)if the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229-A IPC.
