BNS, 2023 r/w. Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Cr.No. 362 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to civil dispute between the parties, the petitioner had abused the defacto complainant and her husband in filthy language and also assaulted them and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the nature of allegation that on account of the property dispute between the relatives and that it is a case and counter and that the petitioner do not have any other antecedents, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from
