PETITION FOR ANTICIPATORY BAIL UNDER SECTION 482 OF BNSS

3.Heard. Perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

4.Considering the nature of allegations that the petitioner is arrayed as A6 in the case, wherein, he along with the other accused are said to have printed counterfeit notes and were trying to transport the same and the petitioner is said to have fled away from the scene, I am not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on anticipatory bail. The learned counsel would submit that except for the confession of the co-accused when the petitioner was not found in the scene of occurrence, anticipatory bail could be granted. But however, in this case, it can be seen that the allegation is that he fled away from the scene and therefore, this is a case, which may require, custodial interrogation, especially when the offence relates to counterfeiting currency notes. Therefore, this is not a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail.

5.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
