ORDER

This petition has been filed seeking to quash the proceedings in Crime No.86 of 2022 on the file of the first respondent Police, insofar as the petitioner is concerned.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.09.2022, at about 07.00 a.m., the petitioners driven their motor vehicle in a rash and negligent manner. Hence, the second respondent has given a complaint before the first respondent Police and the same was registered in Crime No.86 of 2022 for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 279, 283 of IPC and r/w Section 184 of Motor vehicles Act. Challenging the same, the present petition has been filed.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the respondent Police has included the petitioners' name in the FIR without considering the real fact. He would further submit that there is no specific overtact against the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the first respondent Police would submit that there are materials available to proceed with the case as against the petitioners herein and at the threshold, the criminal proceedings cannot be quashed and hence, he would pray to dismiss the present petition.

5. On a reading of FIR, there appears to be some materials for the investigation to proceed. Interfering with the investigation, which is at an infancy stage under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, will be against the law laid down by the Supreme Court in State of Haryana and others vs. Bhajan Lal and others reported in 1992 Supp (1) SCC 335.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed. However, the first respondent Police is directed to conclude investigation in Crime No.86 of 2022 within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
