2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent and perused the materials available on record.

3. Considering the fact that the petitioner was earlier granted bail, but, however, he did not attend the trial Court and such NBW was issued on 16.02.2023 and therefore, he was arrested in execution of the said non bailable warrant only on 24/6/2024 and since it is seen that the case is of the year 2022, one accused after the other has been absconding to stall the progress of the case. Secondly, it can also be seen that the petitioner has got 38 previous cases. Therefore, when the petitioner is jumping out bail only to stall the progress of the case and when repeated conditions are imposed on him to regularly attend the hearings and also not to get involved in further offences and when the petitioner flouts all the conditions imposed by the courts in various cases pending against him and repeatedly involves in offences, this case comes within the exception and as such this Court is inclined to dismiss the petition for bail.

4. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed for the present.
