After trial, the case was ended in conviction on 07.04.2022. Against which, the petitioner filed an appeal in Crl.A.SR.No.1834 of 2022 before the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Karur under Section 374 of Cr.P.C., The learned Sessions Judge returned the same on 22.07.2022 and directed the petitioner to either recall the warrant before the trial Court or get suspension of sentence from the trial Court and prefer appeal. Challenging the same, the petitioner filed this petition with the above said prayer.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the trial Court has not issued any non-bailable warrant against the petitioner and the case was ended in conviction. Against which, she filed an appeal in Crl.A.SR.No.1834 of 2022 before the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Karur. The learned Sessions Judge ought to have entertained the appeal by numbering and considering for suspension of sentence.
