2.The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused were found to be in illegal possession of counterfeit notes . Hence, the complaint.

3.Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4.Considering the nature of allegation in this case that the petitioner and the other accused are said to have indulged in cheating the persons by promising them of doubling money and in that process they were said to be transporting bundles of rupee notes, which contained genuine notes only on the top and bottom, and in between fake currency of the same serial number was kept, so as to cheat the persons and in between, the vehicle was intercepted and all the accused persons were arrested and considering the fact that the petitioner is in judicial custody from 05.08.2024 and that there are no other antecedents against the petitioner and that the investigation is almost completed, I am inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail with certain conditions.

5.Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail, on executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Nanguneri, Tirunelveli District;

surety bond and the Magistrate/concerned court may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity;

(ii)the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m.,for a period of three weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation. It is made clear that no relaxation of the condition for the said period will be entertained by this court;

(iii)the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness;

(iv)the petitioner shall not abscond during trial.

(v)On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

(vi) If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
