The petitioners/Accused, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 296(B) and 118(1) of BNSS, in Crime No.141 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to previous motive with regard to property dispute, the accused have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him and caused injury. Hence, the complaint.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent Police submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases as against the petitioners.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that the injured was discharged from the hospital and also considering the fact there are no antecedents as against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6.Accordingly, this Petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen
