of POCSO Act,2012. He had been sentenced to serve 60 years simple imprisonment, consequent to such conviction. The reason for seeking leave is that his family had decided to sell the property in S.F. No.104/7 having patta No.1901 at Alagapuri Taluk, Virudhunagar District,. The registration is to take place at Pandalkudi Sub Registrar Office.

3. We had sought examining the genuinity of the reason and report had been forwarded by the Probationary Officer of the Virudhunagar District, wherein he had stated that it is a fact that the family members of the petitioner is making arrangement to sell the property. The husband of the petitioner had already been granted emergency leave for a period of one day on 03.04.2024 and he had been able to complete the registration, but this property is a different property.

4. Taking into consideration all these factors, we quash the order of the second respondent dated 25.09.2024 and grant ordinary leave to the husband of the petitioner namely Natraj, S/o.Shanmugam, C.P.No.958 and now confined at Central Prison ,Madurai for a period of
