register the documents presented by the petitioner for registration without insisting for the production of original parent document within the time that may be stipulated by this Court.

For Petitioner : M/s. H. Thayumanaswamy
For Respondent : Mr.P.Subbaraj

ORDER

By consent of both sides, the writ petition itself is taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission itself.

2. Challenging the impugned refusal slip issued by the 2nd respondent dated 23.07.2024 refusing to register the document presented by the petitioner for registration on the ground that the originals have not been produced, the present Writ Petition has been filed.

3. The case of the petitioner is that the petitioner intended to settle the subject property in favour of her husband by way of registered settlement deed and when the petitioner presented the document for registration, the same was refused to be registered by the 2nd respondent stating non availability of the original documents. Challenging the same the present Writ Petition.

WP(MD). No.25057 of 2024

4. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents and perused the materials available on record.

5. It is the contention of the petitioner that the respondents cannot pass such refusal. He further contended that the petitioner presented the certified copy of the originals. Hence, seeks a direction to the respondents to register the settlement deed. presented by the petitioner.

6. It is relevant note that this Court in the case of Federal Bank v Sub Registrar, reported in 2023 (2) CTC 289 has held that Sub Rule XX of Rule 162 has no statutory backing. The said order has been followed by a Division Bench of this Court in the case of M. Ariyanatchi v Inspector General made in W.A.(MD).No. 856 of 2023, dated 27.06.2023, wherein, Division Bench of this Court has held that, for instance, the original document is held by one co-owner, the Sub-Registrar can always take an undertaking or a declaration in the form of an affidavit from the vendors to the effect that the original document is with the said person and register the document. Hence, the Sub-Registrar cannot refuse to register a document merely because the originals have not been produced. In such view of the matter, the impugned refusal slip has to be set aside.

7. Accordingly, this Writ Petition is allowed and the impugned refusal check slip dated 23.07.2024 is hereby quashed and the 2nd respondent is directed to register the document presented by the petitioner within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No costs.
