2.The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was going to take bath in a bath tub situated near his house after finishing the village festival, the petitioners and the other accused are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked him with wooden log, knife etc., and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3.Heard both sides.

4.Considering the nature of the occurrence that it is the dispute with reference to the release of water from the bathtub between the neighbours, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5.Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of their arrest or their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam, Madurai District, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/-(Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further conditions that:

(a)the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar
