4. It is settled law that pendency of first information report will not prohibit the first respondent from issuing passport to the petitioner. If the respondents are satisfied with the explanation submitted by the petitioner with regard to the pendency of the first information report against him, they are empowered to issue passport in his favour.

5. For the foregoing reasons, this Court directs the second respondent to consider the petitioner's passport application dated 07.10.2024, after giving due consideration to the explanation submitted by the petitioner with regard to the first information report pending against him and decide as to whether the petitioner is entitled for the passport or not. If the petitioner is found to be entitled for the passport, the first respondent is directed to dispose of the petitioner's application one way or the other, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.
