Government Advocate (Crl.Side)for R1&2

: Mr.J.M.Hazzanul Bazari for R3 to 7

ORDER

The petitioner has filed this petition for police protection.

2. Heard the learned counsel on either side.

3. The grievance of the petitioner seems to be after constructing a house and when he started plastering the wall, the private respondents being the neighbour are preventing him.

4. When the matter came up for hearing, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) would submit that the petition given by the petitioner was enquired, both sides appeared before the respondent police and upon considering the fact that there is a boundary dispute as to whether the wall of the petitioner within the land of the petitioner or encroachment into the land of the respondents, they have advised the parties to approach the Civil court. Both sides have already undertaken that they will approach the Civil Court for relief. In view thereof, it will be open for the petitioner to approach the appropriate civil court for relief and as and when any order/decreed is passed by the civil Court, it will be open for the petitioner to seek police protection.

5. With such liberty preserved to the petitioner, this Petition stands disposed of.
