The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 126(2), 296(b), 115(2) and 351(2) of BNS, in Crime No.274 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was some family dispute which resulted in both the parties attacking each other. Hence, the case.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side), on instructions, submitted that 2 FIRs came to be registered as a case and counter case in Crime No.274 and 275 of 2024.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that there is a case and counter case involved and considering the fact that the injured have already been discharged from the hospital, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions.
