2. This Court does not find any ground to modify the condition imposed by the Court below.

3. It is brought to the notice of this Court that initially, the petitioner filed an anticipatory bail petition, which was allowed by an order dated 01.08.2024 in Cr.M.P.No.1604 of 2024 before the learned Principal Sessions Judge, Tenkasi. The condition imposed in that order was not complied with by the petitioner. Thereafter, the petitioner filed yet another anticipatory bail petition in which an order was passed on 04.09.2024. Even after that order was passed, the petitioner did not comply with the condition and sought for modification.

4. This Court is not convinced with the attitude of the petitioner in this case and hence, this Court is not inclined to modify the condition. The petitioner, who was granted anticipatory bail, ought to have been complied with the condition even at the first instance. If he was not able to comply with any of the condition, he should have taken steps to get it modified. Instead the petitioner by giving up the first order filed another anticipatory bail petition, wherein, the order passed was not complied with. This attitude on the part of the petitioner cannot be entertained.
