Principal Assistant Sessions Judge, Thanjavur District, seeks bail.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent Police on instructions submitted that the case is of the year 2015 and the petitioner, who is arrayed as Accused No.1, was absconding and non bailable warrant was issued on 20.07.2023. Ultimately, he was able to be arrested only on 22.10.2024. He further submitted that there are eight previous cases pending against the petitioner and the case is now pending before the learned Principal Assistant Sessions Judge, Thanjavur in S.C.No.31 of 2017. The case is posted for examination of Investigating Officer.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the parties have arrived at a compromise in this case and therefore, requested for adjournment of this case.

5. In the considered view of this Court, considering the previous conduct of the petitioner and the delay in trial caused due to the petitioner jumping bail, this Court is not inclined to enlarge the petitioner on bail. If there is a compromise between the parties, they have to work out their remedy in the manner known to
