2.Today (26.03.2024), when this writ petition is taken up for hearing, there is no representation for the petitioners.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the respondents submits that the petitioners are residing at Karur and they have not offered any proper surety for grant of agricultural loan and therefore, they have not considered the petitioners' applications. In the event, if the petitioners produce sufficient surety, loan would be sanctioned.

4.Recording the submission made by the learned counsel for the respondents, this writ petition is disposed of with a liberty to the petitioners to approach the respondents along with the required surety and on their application, the respondent shall consider the same at the earliest. No costs.
