The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 191(2), 191(3), 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) BNS (hereinafter referred to as new penal code) in Crime No.197 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a previous dispute between the parties and that on 31.10.2024, there was a wordy quarrel as a result of which, both the parties attacked each other. The same ended in a case and counter case in Crime No.196 and 197 of 2024. There are totally nine accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as A4.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the manner, in which, the entire incident had taken place and also considering the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner and the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is a case and counter case in Crime No.196 & 197 of 2024, which are under investigation by the first respondent, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen
