The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 126(2), 296(b) and 351(2) of BNS (hereinafter referred to as new penal code) in Crime No.298 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a property dispute between the parties. On 23.09.2024, the accused persons are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and intimidated with dire consequences.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that there was a property dispute between two sisters, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial
