COMMON ORDER

The fourth respondent college in both petitions are self financing minority private agricultural college affiliated with the second respondent University. In that colleges, the petitioners have been admitted to pursue their agricultural degree in the year 2017 against the lapsed seats. Therefore, the University raised certain objections with regard to the admission of the petitioners in the fourth respondent college. As against that proceedings, these writ petitions have been filed.

2.When these writ petitions are taken up for hearing, the learned counsel appearing on either side submits that pursuant to the interim order granted by this
