ORDER

(Order of the court was delivered by G.R.Swaminathan, J.)

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor for the respondents 1 & 2.

2. The petitioner is the mother of the detenue. The petitioner alleges that she has been abducted by the third respondent. Since the second respondent failed to trace her daughter, the present habeas corpus petition came to be filed.

3. When the matter was taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the petitioner's daughter is aged about 20 years and that she has already got married to the third respondent. Based on the petitioner's complaint, Crime No.236 of 2024 was registered by the second respondent. The girl was secured. The petitioner was also summoned to the police station. The petitioner's daughter informed the petitioner that she would go only with the third respondent. Written statement was also taken from the petitioner's daughter. The mother had also counter signed the said statement. Thereafter, an action dropped report was also filed. In these circumstances, the present habeas corpus petition is clearly not maintainable. The Habeas Corpus Petition is dismissed.
