5. It is also stated that even after giving undertaking before the execution court, again, the petitioners are being prevented from entering the land. Therefore, if anything is again reported or if the said respondents are preventing the petitioners from entering the land, protection has to be given to the petitioners in terms of this civil court decree. When the order / decree of the Civil Court has become final, the respondent police shall give protection strictly in terms of the civil court decree. Therefore, if and when any interference is made, the same shall be immediately reported specifically by the petitioners, to the respondent police and the respondent police shall give protection, in terms of the civil court decree.

6. With the above said direction, this Petition stands disposed of.
