The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 296(b), 118(1) and 351(2) BNS (hereinafter referred to as new penal code) in Crime No.259 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was some property dispute. As a result of which, the petitioners are said to have attacked the defacto complainant with steel rod and abused him in filthy language and threatened him.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the manner, in which, this incident had taken place and considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and there is a case and counter case, which is under investigation before the respondent police in Crime No.259 and 260 of 2024 and also considering that there are no other previous cases pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the
