are being foisted against the petitioner and in every case, this petitioner has been included as Accused No.4 in Crime Nos.122, 127 and 128 of 2024 and all these FIRs were registered by the same respondent Police. He further submitted that the petitioner was arrested in yet another case in Crime No.329 of 2024, which was registered by Suthamalli Police Station, Tirunelveli District on 23.06.2024 and when the petitioner was in judicial custody in that case, the other three cases were foisted against the petitioner by the respondent Police. He further submitted that the petitioner has been enlarged on bail in the case in Crime No.329 of 2024.

4. Based on the above submissions made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner, this Court directed the respondent Police to file a status report in this case. On going through the status report, it is seen that the petitioner was arrayed as Accused No.4 in all the three cases and he was added as an accused based on the confession of Accused Nos.1 to 3 in each case. In none of these three cases, the recovery was made from the petitioner.

5. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the petitioner is repeatedly involved in the commission of theft and that apart from these three cases, there are five previous cases against the petitioner. Therefore, the learned Additional public Prosecutor vehemently opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner.
